Global PartnerV move, which both defines BIC Sport as one of the leading brands in the industry to stand up rowing and solidify SIC from previously stubborn ground, BIC Sport signs a new global agreement on global trademark rights SIC. Happy smiles all around at the merger forces of these two great brands: BIC Sport and SIC. Get out of here, team! BIC Sport took on SIC in a global rights package in a move this past weekend that rocketed through the stand up rowing industry. BIC Sport reached an agreement with FLOW Sports, Inc. for global rights to operate, market and sell SIC (Sandwich Island Composite) stand up rowing products. Flow Sports, Inc., owner of SIC, has confirmed that it has completed a global deal with BIC Sport, the world's leading water sports company, for more than 35 years. This merger promises a bright future for SIC as a premium, performance stand up rowing in the BIC portfolio. BIC Sport's global marketing reach also promises that SIC will now become available to more than 90 countries worldwide. In short, BIC Sport goes BIC with SIC! BIC Sport proudly adds SIC to its portfolio, which allows us to offer this iconic and prestigious brand within our family of brands. This business captures BIC Sport with a superior, performance brand with world-class products from recreational paddle enthusiasts to the most elite rowers in the world, says Thierry Verneuil – president of BIC Sport. SIC already hosts such elite performers and ambassadors as brands such as Seychelle Hattingh, Kody Kerbox, Jeremy Riggs, Caio Vaz and Lina Augaitus. This brand consolidation brings a level of performance in BIC previously used. Everybody wins! SIC signs at w BIC Sport for global SIC marketing are looking forward to a bright future with BIC Sport! Anthony Scaturro, President and CEO of FLOW Sports, Inc. proclaimed: 'I couldn't be happier with this deal. I have always admired BIC Sport's commitment to the water sports market and that sport is accessible to the entry level to a recreational enthusiast. Their success in water sports is undeniable. Scaturro went on to say: 'I had the privilege of visiting a factory in France and I was blown away by the state of the art technology that BIC Sport uses to produce its products. I think we can learn a lot from each other. Visit www.sicmaui.com to learn more about the SIC brand and its products.
